ANNEMARIE MICHAUD NAMED CLG PARTNER

PITTSBURGH, Feb 23, 2007 – CLG, the world’s largest behaviorally-based strategy execution and leadership development consultant, announced today that Annemarie Michaud has been appointed partner with the company.

Ms. Michaud has been with CLG since April of 2002. She consults with both private and public firms in a wide range of industries ranging from finance, manufacturing, oil, pharmaceuticals, insurance and government. Her professional focus has been in planning and implementing large-scale interventions in people-based business performance improvement. Her consulting has encompassed organizational design, strategy development and execution, mergers and acquisitions, change leadership, quality and team building.

“Annemarie is an extraordinary member of our organization; she truly sweats the details on all matters that touch our customers. This has enabled her to create a loyal following among our core client base. She has been with CLG for nearly five years and we are happy to see her continue to grow and prosper within the organization,” said Ned Morse, CEO of CLG.
