JON AMELIO APPOINTED IT DIRECTOR AT CLG

PITTSBURGH, Dec 20, 2007 – CLG, the world's largest behaviorally-based strategy execution and leadership development consultant, announced today that Jon Amelio has been appointed to the role of Director of Information Technology.

Prior to joining CLG, Amelio was with Northrop Grumman Corporation's Information Technology Solutions Sector as an IT Manager on projects for the state of Virginia and Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel, one of the nation's largest steel manufacturers. On both projects Amelio was successful in re-engineering IT infrastructure operations to improve systems reliability and customer service.

He started his career at Columbia Gas System in 1987 when he joined the company as an IT Specialist responsible for analyzing and acquiring of hardware and software, troubleshooting, computer training, PC/mainframe systems development and Novell Netware administration. He remained there for ten years, eventually managing the IT department for Columbia's Energy Services subsidiary of 350 employees and leading a 20-person staff.
